

Beached bird surveys, June - August 1992

Few surveys were conducted, as usual during summer. The only information received came from Texel and Ameland, where a mixture of species was found, including Cormorants, Eider, Shelduck and the commoner species of gulls. Very few birds were oiled and one Herring Gull was found entangled in nylon thread.

Information from: NZG/NSO database, C.J. Camphuysen, M.F. Leopold, J.N. IJnsen. CJC